NORTHERN TRINITY GROUNDWATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON AMENDMENTS TO DISTRICT RULES

October 27, 2026, at 2:00 pm

The Northern Trinity Groundwater Conservation District ("District") will hold a Public Rulemaking Hearing on Proposed Amendments to District Rules on October 27, 2026, at 2:00 p.m. at the District office, located at 1100 Circle Drive, Fort Worth, Texas 76119. All interested parties are invited to attend.

The proposed amendments to the District's Rules address civil penalties; coordination of well approvals with groundwater availability certifications and subdivision platting requirements; identification of licensed well drillers; and clarification of driller and well-owner responsibilities prior to drilling. The amendments would also add permit application requirements, including proposed driller information and, for certain requests seeking increased groundwater production, a current water-loss audit.

Additional proposed amendments address the annual production threshold requiring a hydrogeologic report; requirements for qualifying dewatering wells; well spacing; well systems and aggregate annual production; and enforcement for repeated production exceeding permitted amounts. The amendments also address metering and reporting procedures for meter readings and meter replacements, as well as conforming changes to definitions, cross-references, numbering, and related provisions.

At the conclusion of the hearing or any time or date thereafter, the proposed amendments to the District's Rules may be adopted in the form presented or as amended based upon comments received without any additional notice. Any person who desires to appear at the hearing and present comments or other information on the proposed amendments may do so in person, by counsel, or both. Comments may be presented verbally or in written form.

A copy of the proposed rule amendments is available for review on the NTGCD's website at www.ntgcd.com and at the NTGCD office located at 1100 Circle Drive, Suite 300, Fort Worth, Texas 76119.
